

The Dark Side of the Belle Époque

Seminar series
Winter 2018/19

23-24 October 2018

Oxford, History Faculty

“Workshop – Industrial Vigilantism, strikebreaking and patterns of anti-labour violence, 1890s-1930s”

5 December 2018

Padova, DiSSGeA, Sala Bortolami, h. 10.30

Joint seminar “State and Private Policing in Belle Époque Europe”

- Diego Palacios Cerezales (University of Sterling), “Militias and the Monopoly of Force in Portugal after the 1910 revolution”
- Anja Johansen (University of Dundee), “State Repression and Structures of Un-Accountability for Police and Army in Republican France and Imperial Germany, 1880s-1914”

6 December 2018

Padova, DiSSGeA, Sala Bortolami, h. 10.30

Dominique Kalifa (Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne), “Private police and autodéfense in Belle Époque Paris”

* In collaboration with Centro Interuniversitario di Storia Culturale

23 January 2019

École Française de Rome

Workshop “Armed groups, organized violence and the Euro-Mediterranean spaces (1870-1914)”

